On the formation of the new Company the proference shares were taken as twofifthe of the amount paid up on the ordinary shares, making them relatively four times their original value. For all future dividends over twelve per cent, they will now got one-fourth. Surply your correspondent ought to be acutent I think it was very leard on the holders of ordinary shares, and I way that in spite of the and in accordance with your request, I have the fact that i-subscribed for a thousand preference sheres, which I still hold: But I suppose the the French possessions on the side of Kyair directors thought they had no choice, for the Hung has not yet been made, but that, in conditions under which they were besied were : "That in the event of the Company being

The old Company was wound up and an holder of preference shares had, I should say, a M. Lebou. Under Secretary of State for the sound claim for one doller a share, but there the liability of the Company clearly consed. At the time of the re-formation the market value of the shares, both ordinary and preference, was much below par, yet no one claimed, for although we have bears and even bulls as lacking in principle as their kidney in any other part of the world, we are fortunately as yet free from the going towrecker Had I been a director think I could have suggested an arrangement. that would have been more equitable, but as it is "A Shareholder" instead of trying to grab more than he is entitled to should be very highly pleased that he has got THE BEST OF THE BARGAIN.

A French Yellow Book covering the above was issued on 11th December. In addition it contains a letter addressed by M. Casimir-Perier, Premier and Minister for Foreign Affairs, to Colonies. The letter is dated Dec. 4, and recapitulates what has been done-viz, the spnointment of the Joint Commission, its acceptance of the Pavie Mission map, the sonsible difference between the lines proposed on both sides, the lack of precise information on the political limits of the territories in question, the mutual engagement as to freedom of transit communications, and the despatch of delegates. M. Casimir-Perier proceeds to say:-"As you will remark, the mission of these delegates will be a simple mission of investigation. They are deputed notely to collect information, not to settle difficulties. If divergences of opinion arise between them, they will note the grounds.
